concert at the San Bernardino Sports Arena. But he'll need to find a place of his own, since the concert venue's landlord cut off all utilities to its suites several days ago. "I guess there's a mortgage that people don't know about. And the landlord is trying to push them off the property," Aldean told the Daily Press. "There's a few things that I'm going to have to check into with my management and figure out what we're going to do." Aldean, who will play the San Bernardino Sports Arena in San Bernardino,

California, on Saturday night, is in the middle of one of the most successful tours of his career. The 27-year-old singer is currently atop the Billboard 200 albums chart with his ninth studio album, Because of You. It follows a half-decade in which he topped the chart with 10 studio albums. Aldean has not ruled out canceling his San Bernardino concert, but he and his team are working with "super cool people" to find a solution, he said. The artist's financial situation is particularly dire, according to the
